SUMMARY

Set on an elevated position in spacious mature gardens with stunning views over the rolling countryside towards Strangford Lough, a short distance away. This elegant period farmhouse has been extensively and sensitively renovated within the last few years to include the installation of central heating, double glazing, luxury kitchen with oil fired 'Aga' and new sanitary ware and combines the period features with the demands of modern living. The property is let unfurnished.

Two reception rooms, conservatory, luxury farmhouse kitchen, four bedrooms (three en suite) including ground floor bedroom en-suite provide accommodation to suit most families needs.

The property is situated in an area designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty enjoying the benefit of the Lough, renowned restaurants and artisan shops in the immediate area and within a short commute to Belfast with public transport to a fine selection of top grammar schools and primary school a short distance away.
